Mariners of Bewl Risk Assessment - Safety Boat Operations

Risk assessment a	ınd risk manaç	gement record			Number	002 MoB
Activity	Safety Boat	Operations				Bewl Water
Identifying the hazards - assessing the risk			Risk rating	Control measures - reducing the risk	$\top$		Outcome
Drowning			High	All safety boat helms and crew are required to wear an appropriately fitted			Low
			_	buoyancy aid.
				All Safety Boat drivers are trained and hold RYA Level 2 Powerboat (min).
Cold Water Shock			High	The effect on the body of entering water 15°C and below is often underestimated.			Low
				This shock can be the precursor to drowning.
Hypothermia			Medium	All safety boat helms and crew wear appropriate clothing for the conditions and			Low potential tasks which may include entering the water.
Collision with other craft			Medium	Safety boats are driven by a competent helm in a safe manner, appropriate to			Low
				the conditions and other activity taking place on the water.
				Crews advised to keep a good look out at all times
Falling overboard - hit by propeller		ler	High	Helms wear engine kill cord from before engaging gears to cast off.			Low
				Helms and crew remain seated whilst engine is in gear.
Injury whilst transferring from dinghy to power boat			High	Transfers are forbidden and NOT to be attempted unless an EMERGENCY* and			Medium or visa-versa			no other option available.
				* Both craft to be secured firmly together.
Recovering personnel or equipment		Medium	All safety boat helms and crew are advised to follow HSE Manual Handling			Low guidance Getting to Grips with Manual Handling.
				http://www.hse.gov.uk/pubns/indg143.pdf
Fire			High	Smoking or naked flames are not permitted in or near safety boats.			Low Refuelling is only permitted when securly tied alongside or when on land in a safe area or when afloat but only if an emergency.
Completed:	Date:	22/03/2024		Review date	: March 202	5
		RHogte_
Signature:	Club Officer:	~-		Seen/read by Chair	:
Please Print name:	: [	Richard Hayden RYA Senior	instructor.				