These personal details will not be shared with any other organisations and will only be used by MoB to communicate with you. MoB communicates with members primarily via email.

MoB may collect, use, and store your personal data, as described in our Data Privacy Policy. MoB complies with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when dealing with your personal data.

I consent that any photographs taken that include me, may be used by MoB on promotional material for publicity, including newsletters, posters, social media, and the website. I understand that my name will not be published on any such material.

I am confident in water.

I agree to abide by and declare that I have read the Members Handbook, which details operating guidance and procedures, Safety Rules, Acceptance/Acknowledgement of Risk and all Club Policies. (Copies of which can be downloaded from the MoB website or found in MoB HQ)

I agree to wearing a buoyancy aid whilst on any pontoon or dinghy and to following any instructions relating to the sailing of any dinghy and/or my safety or safety of others as issued by those leading the activity. I understand and acknowledge that sailing is a hazardous activity, and that the activity is not risk free.

I agree to abide by the conditions of membership, being:

Mariners of Bewl is a self-help club which relies on its members to help maintain and improve its facilities. Wherever possible, I will undertake the 'Officer of the Day' and Support Boat duties, join working groups, e.g. to maintain dinghies, play an active part with some administrative duties and help with social events. Members are always welcome to become active members of the Club Committee during the term of their membership.

If I choose to sail in a members' own boat, I acknowledge that I am not covered by MoB Insurance.
